

MANAGEMENT MINOR

This minor creates an opportunity for School of Business students to develop essential management skills in entrepreneurial thinking, creativity and innovation, teamwork, leadership, managing diversity, international business, and negotiation in complex business environments.

This minor is only open to students enrolled in the School of Business (not open to Management majors). Refer to the School of Business section of this catalog for restrictions on Business minors.

Requirements

To receive a minor in Management, a student must complete five (5) 3-credit, 3000/4000-level courses offered by the School of Business to include:

Course	Title	Credits
MENT 3101 or BADM 3740	Managerial and Interpersonal Behavior	3
MENT 4900 or MENT 4902	Strategic Management	3
Three additional 3000/4000-level MENT courses		9
Total Credits		15

Credits from internships may be used to satisfy one of the three additional 3-credit, 3000/4000-level MENT courses for the minor. Courses taken through the Education Abroad program and accredited at the MENT 3000/4000 level may satisfy the requirements of this minor. No more than one 3-credit course used to satisfy requirements for this minor may be from transfer credits earned.

Courses designed for students pursuing this minor can be found in the Management (MENT) course description section of the Undergraduate Catalog. Students should note they must meet all class prerequisites. Access to courses for this minor is on a space available basis, and the School of Business cannot guarantee completion of this minor.

The minor is offered by the School of Business. For more information, contact the Management Department, phone: 860-486-3638; email: pamela.costa@business.uconn.edu.
